

WG26 Changing agricultural practices and food systems

May 24, 10:40 - 12:20 Room 3

Organizer

Camilla Eriksson

Can we produce food during crisis? Vulnerabilities and resilience at farm level in Swedish farming

Camilla Eriksson, camilla.eriksson@slu.se

Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences, Sweden

“If we had been in France I would have burned the place down” Swedish farmers about local production in a global sector

Susanne Stenbacka, susanne.stenbacka@kultgeog.uu.se

Ann Grubbström, ann.grubbstrom@kultgeog.uu.se

Uppsala University, Sweden

The prospects for Swedish farming: agrarian change and household livelihood strategies

Flora Hajdu, flora.hajdu@slu.se

Camilla Eriksson, camilla.eriksson@slu.se

Cecilia Waldenström, cecilia.waldenstrom@slu.se

Erik Westholm, erik.westholm@slu.se

Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences, Sweden

Trees are all around us. Tree-politics, paradoxes and farmers' every day management of woody pastures in Sweden

Mattias Sandberg, mattias.sandberg@geography.gu.se

University of Gothenburg, Sweden

Silent land-grab? Evidence for the gentrification of agriculture in Europe

Lee-Ann Sutherland, lee-ann.sutherland@hutton.ac.uk

James Hutton Institute, United Kingdom